

New Members June 2010

Lydia Ruth Bates
June Bates
4 W. 48th Ave.
Kennewick, WA 99337
582-2929
juneruth@verizon.net

Ruth (daughter) and June (mother) are joining First Pres together. June has lived in the Tri-Cities for about 10 years and Ruth has lived here for three years. June is originally from Indiana and lived in Barstow, CA for 30 years before coming to the Tri-Cities. She has five children, including Ruth, who presently is her caregiver. Ruth, also originally from Michigan, has lived in a number of states across the U.S., most recently in California, where she attended Presbyterian churches for the past 20 years. Ruth's hobbies include writing, painting and gardening—she is a Master Gardener. She is already active at First Pres having served in the kitchen at the Orcas Island encampment. She wants us to know that she loves God through Christ's teachings and love. They come to First Pres seeking a church family.

Bill Colvin
2320 W. Sylvester, B-50
Pasco, WA 99301
546-0665

Bill hails originally from North Dakota and came to the Tri-Cities in 1993 by way of Idaho. He is a retired American History teacher. Bill initially attended First Pres because of family (Ken & Jeanne Colvin) and decided to join because it was "about time." He likes to read and has been active at First Pres for a number of years. Bill also just returned from the Orcas Island encampment.

Jerry Grimsley
604 E 31st Ct.
Kennewick, WA 99337
582-9071

become actively involved.

Jerry, born in Illinois, has lived in the Tri-Cities since 1958 and is presently retired. He has two married children. Jerry was drawn to First Pres because of his mother Val Sparks and decided to join to come to know God better. He is an avid outdoorsman and enjoys hunting, fishing, boating and golf. Jerry wants to get to know our First Pres family and is looking at several areas in which he can

New Members June 2010

Marge Hays
4004 S. Reed Ct.
Kennewick, WA 99337
582-7639

Marge is reactivating her membership after several years and attended the Inquirers Class this spring to regain familiarity with First Pres. Born in Montana, Marge lived in Minnesota, Oregon, Idaho and Spokane before moving to in the Tri-Cities 42 years ago. She has three children and is the major owner of Desert Buick-GMC. Marge enjoys golf, walking with her Alaskan malamute dog and playing bunko with her neighbors. Marge felt a need to be part of the First Pres family once more and is interested in pursuing bible studies. Welcome back, Marge.

Fawn Hewett
2046 Harris
Richland, WA 99354
946-6790

Fawn was born in Portland, OR and has lived in the Tri-Cities for 57 years. She came to First Pres while searching for a new church home. Fawn enjoys time with her family in addition to sewing, reading, bridge and P.E.O. At First Pres she is interested in PW and assisting in the kitchen. Give Fawn a warm greeting when you meet her.

Jan Hughes
1905 W. Kennewick Ave.
Kennewick, WA 99336
551-1776

Jan was born in Kennewick and has lived here all her life. Presently she is employed at the Best Western Motel in Kennewick as Night Auditor. She enjoys the companionship of her pet Schnauser, Chester. Jan came to First Pres upon the recommendation of another pastor and because of our location next door to her house. Her hobbies include crocheting, knitting, quilting, floral arrangements, reading and building things. Although spending considerable time caring for her parents, she is interested in furthering biblical education for adults and children. Meet our neighbor, Jan.

New Members June 2010

Patsy Hull
312 S. Columbia Center Blvd., #31
Kennewick, WA 99336
783-8363

Patsy is from Stevenson, WA and has lived in the Tri-Cities since 1947. She has two grown children. Patsy was drawn to First Pres by the more formal style of the second worship service with its music and its traditional hymns, the flow of the worship service, the reverence, and its quietness. She enjoys reading and walks three miles daily, six days a week. Look for Patsy at the second service and welcome her to our First Pres family.

Don Kidder
4427 Rio Grande Ave
Kennewick, WA 99336
783-4601
dkidder126@aol.com

Don was raised in Rock Springs, WY, and he has lived in the Tri-Cities for the past 30 years. In between, Don claims to have lived “just about everywhere” in a naval career spanning 22 years, sailed the South Pacific in a sailboat for two years, and was a Chief of Police in Utah for four years. Don has been married to Mickey Kidder for nearly 40 years. He is presently employed as an Engineering Consultant and continues traveling just about everywhere. Our sign on Kennewick Avenue initially drew Don to First Pres. He is involved with the Coast Guard Auxiliary and the Columbia Basin Sea Cadets and also enjoys boating and woodworking. Give Don a warm greeting.

Matt and Cristina Louk
2605 S. Ledbetter St.
Kennewick, WA 99337
222-4163
Cristina: colarl2@yahoo.com
Matt: Matt.Louk@yahoo.com

Matt hails from Placerville, CA and Cristina from Sacramento. They have lived in the Tri-Cities for about a year. Matt is a flooring contractor and Cristina teaches dance at the Tri-Cities Academy of Ballet. They have two children, Cleo, age 9, and Tori, age 7. Both children love to dance and read. Cristina grew up in the Presbyterian Church and desired to raise her children as Presbyterians. They found the folks at First Pres to be very warm and welcoming and decided that they wanted to be part of our family. Matt enjoys watching hockey, playing golf and bowling. Cristina’s activities include dance, theatre and yoga.

New Members June 2010

Betty Williamson
3911 S. Green St.
Kennewick, WA 99337
582-7321

Betty is from West Virginia and lived in several states during WWII before coming to the Tri-Cities in 1944. She is the mother of four grown sons. After her husband passed away, she decided that she wanted to go to church with her friend, Marge Hays. Betty's hobbies are sewing and gardening.

